On the above-mentioned day, intercepting the Zvornik – Vlasenica RR /radio-relay/ route on frequency 785.000, channel 5, we registered at 1250 hours a conversation between General MLADIĆ (M) and an unidentified male person (X).

The conversation proceeded as follows:

- X: Go ahead, General.
- M: Have these buses and trucks left?
- X: They have.
- M: When?
- X: Ten minutes ago.
- M: Good, excellent. Continue to monitor the situation. Don't let small groups of them sneak in. They've all capitulated and surrendered and we'll evacuate them all – those who want to and those who don't want to.
- X: I understand, General.
- M: Don't issue any statements and don't interrupt them over the /?radio/ station. We'll open a corridor towards Kladanj.
- X:
- M: Indeed, let it pass there. Take a patrol of ours to wait on the road and remove the mines and obstacles leave the territory.
- X: Yes, General.
